

I would like to urge you to leave wisconsin's no call list alone. It is not equivalent or redundant in any way. Your national do not call lists rules are way to lenient. That's why so many people here sign up for the wi list over the federal one. We don't want our phones constantly ringing with unwanted calls.